

REGAN

COMMUNICATIONS
GROUP

PEABODY

WEEKLY NEWS

JUNE 5, 2014 • VOLUME 58 • NO. 22

Integrity in Publishing since 1957

www.weeklynews.net • 75¢ single copy • 24 Pages

Circulation: 12, 500

Eleven students graduated last week from Peabody Learning Academy

PEABODY – Peabody Learning Academy at Northshore Mall held a graduation and scholarship presentation on Thursday, May 29th to honor the perseverance and accomplishments of 11 at-risk teens. The ceremony was held at Northshore Mall.

Three of the students were selected as Simon Youth Foundation Academy Scholarship Recipients:

Carla Mottola received a Simon Youth Foundation Academy Scholarship valued at $7,700 over two years.

Teddy Rezza received a Simon Youth Foundation Academy Scholarship valued at $31,000 over four years.

Nichole Kernweis received a Simon Youth Foundation Academy Scholarship valued at $31,000 over four years.

The scholarship is awarded to individuals who have worked tirelessly to earn their diploma, and seek to pursue their dreams in post-secondary education. SYF is a national non-profit dedicated to providing educational and career development opportunities to youth.

The following students were selected and have received a Northshore Community College/East Boston Savings Bank Scholarship valued at $1,000 over one year:

Meagan Lemelin
William Tsonis
Daniel Porter
Brandon Miranda
Carla Mottola

One of the students was selected a Burton's Grill Scholarship recipient.

Meagan Lemelin received Burton's Grill Scholarship valued at $2,500 over one year.

"We are so excited to honor these amazing graduates," said Mark Whiting, general manager of Northshore Mall. "Their dedication to their future inspires all of us."

Peabody Learning Academy grad Nichole Kernweis